

Citi Trends Announces Refresh of Board of Directors

February 29, 2024

Reaches Cooperation Agreement with Fund 1 Investments

SAVANNAH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 29, 2024-- Citi Trends, Inc. (NASDAQ: CTRN) ("Citi Trends" or the "Company"), a leading specialty value retailer of apparel, accessories and home trends for way less spend primarily for African American and multicultural families in the United States, today announced that it will nominate three new independent directors—David Heath, Charles Liu and Michael Kvitko—for election to the Company's Board of Directors (the "Board") at the 2024 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "2024 Annual Meeting"). Prior to the 2024 Annual Meeting, Messrs. Heath, Liu and Kvitko will serve as non-voting Board observers. They have been designated pursuant to a cooperation agreement (the "Agreement") between the Company and Fund 1 Investments (collectively with its affiliates, "Fund 1").

Following the 2024 Annual Meeting, Mr. Heath will be appointed to the Board's Compensation Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, and Messrs. Liu and Kvitko will be appointed to the Finance Committee.

Incumbent directors Brian Carney, Laurens Goff and Christina Francis will retire from the Board immediately following the 2024 Annual Meeting. The Board thanks Brian, Laurens and Christina for their contributions to the Company during their tenures and appreciates the expertise that they brought to the Board over the last several years.

In connection with the Agreement, Fund 1 has agreed to, among other things, a customary standstill and voting commitment. The complete Agreement will be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to a Current Report on Form 8-K.

The Board will remain capped at nine directors for the duration of the Agreement.

Peter Sachse, Executive Chairman of the Board, commented, "The Board is committed to ensuring that its members have the experience and qualifications to support the Company's efforts to enhance stockholder value and meet the needs of customers. The Board also believes it is important to add fresh perspectives and invite suggestions from stockholders. We believe David, Charles and Michael will bring valuable perspectives, as well as strong retail and supply chain backgrounds. We appreciate that Fund 1 suggested them as director candidates during our productive period of constructive engagement. On behalf of the entire Board, I want to express my sincere gratitude to Brian, Laurens and Christina for their distinguished service and long-standing commitment to Citi Trends. We appreciate their many contributions, including Brian's and Laurens' work as chairs of the Audit Committee and Compensation Committee, respectively, and wish them all the best."

Ken Seipel, Chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, added, "Ongoing Board refreshment is critical to putting Citi Trends in the best possible position to navigate changes in the consumer economy and broader retail sector. In particular, adding new viewpoints to our boardroom can help us pursue new paths to improving efficiency and growing in a profitable manner over the long-term. After engaging with Fund 1 and taking into account the views of other stockholders and stakeholders, we determined that David, Charles and Michael help meet many of our needs. These new independent directors collectively possess a wealth of additive experience in areas such as retail, inventory management and logistics. We're excited to have them join our diverse, well-rounded Board."

Jonathan Lennon, Founder and Managing Member of Fund 1, commented, "We appreciate the collaborative dialogue we have had with the Board and leadership and are pleased to reach this agreement for the benefit of all stockholders. We believe the expertise provided by our new designees will help drive operational improvements and enhance Citi Trends' plans for maximizing stockholder value."
