Dear Associates,

As you may have seen, yesterday evening we issued a press release announcing that Citi Trends has reached an agreement with one of our stockholders, Macellum Capital Management, with respect to our upcoming 2019 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. A copy of the press release is attached.

This announcement concludes the proxy contest we were facing a few weeks ago. As part of the agreement, the Citi Trends Board will be adding two new board members who will bring fresh views to the Company. One of these candidates is Peter Sachse, a retail veteran with more than three decades of experience working in various senior positions at Macy's Inc., among a number of other leadership roles at retail companies. The other individual will be identified by the Board's Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee in the coming months.

We also announced that John Lupo, our current Chairman, will retire from the Board and not stand for re-election at the 2019 Annual Meeting, and current Board Member Brian Carney will be appointed Chairman in his place after the 2019 Annual Meeting. On behalf of the entire Board and management team, I want to thank John for his valuable contributions to Citi Trends over the last 15 years and wish him the best.

We believe these changes are a constructive outcome for Citi Trends because, as a result, we can focus our full attention on our business and executing our plan. Further, the Board and I look forward to benefiting from the experience of our new members as we continue to make progress on initiatives that will improve our merchandising, planning and allocation, while driving efficiencies, reducing costs and growing our store base.

Importantly, these announcements have no impact on your day-to-day responsibilities. If you receive any calls from the media, analysts or other third parties regarding this news, please forward them to me at bsmith@citetrends.com or (912) 443-2075.

We have made significant achievements over the past several years. With your continued contribution, I am confident that in the year ahead we will make strong progress on our strategic plan and execute on our mission of delivering value-priced urban fashion apparel and accessories for the entire family.

Thank you for your continued support and commitment.
